

- 24:22-24:48: Risk isn't shared, most comm. haven't lost anyone, many have.
less people think about people doing the dirty work
- 24:48-25:05: No memorials put up when they came back billboard with them on it. (3)
- 25:05-25:31: First war memorial Sunnyside
- 25:31-25:47: Not time for reflection, noise was different, war was still going on.
- 25:50-26:08: Trying to go back to school, have gf + not be a crazy vet.
- 26:08-26:20: No time/inclination to sit + reflect.
- 26:31-27:01: Common experience was helpful in reassimilating.

Brothers

- 27:02-27:41: Big families, neighborhoods with immigrants join Army to prove Americanness
- 27:41-28:04: Perceived limited range of options.
- 28:04-28:52: Neighborhood had people who were killed
Went to a funeral 1st day back.
- 28:52-28:59: 28:50 "How much does 1 family give?" some gave a lot.
Small clustered neighborhoods.
- 29:01-29:20: People who didn't serve.
- 29:20-29:52: People who complained about war were people who weren't going
- 29:52-30:02: Vets gravitated to each other
- 30:02-30:12: VA wasn't ready for psychological issues.
- 30:12-30:35: Not everyone understood protests.
- 30:35-31:01: Feelings about war didn't immediately emerge bc of community + support
- 31:05-31:14: Accomplished stuff.
- 31:14-31:45: Never expected life would be perfect.
Now not as much of a culture struggle that older people went through.
- 31:45-31:56: Daughter not allowed to do all the stuff he did.
- 31:57-32:28: Daughter anecdote with "looks like a boy's thing" about war
- 32:39-33:35: V. war not taught that well.
Not learning from mistakes.